Abiding Love Caterpillar Room

Dear Parents,

We are looking forward to a fun filled year full of growth and development! Our main goal is to keep your child safe and happy. We do lesson planning each month that touches on all age-appropriate areas that stimulate the physical, cognitive, and emotional needs of your child. We strive to keep consistency in the infant room with staff and routines. We keep all lines of communication open between teachers and parents.

Our philosophy in the infant room is to keep the babies out of objects like swings, bouncers, etc. and have a lot of floor time instead. We understand how important floor time is for infants because it allows them to move around freely, exercise their muscles, and practice skills that lead to rolling, sitting up, crawling, and walking! We also explore an abundance of textures, make a lot of messes through art and sensory play, do a lot of activities that help develop their fine motor skills and gross motor skills, and we help them become more independent as they grow older.

We genuinely believe that all families, as well as infants, are different and have different needs. We look forward to getting to know your family and meeting the needs that you and your child have. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to address them with me communication is key to your child's success and to a good parent/teacher relationship. ## Teacher Biographies

Lexi Kriese

I've been teaching at Abiding Love for 6.5 years; this is my 3rd year as lead teacher, and I absolutely love it! I enjoy working with all ages, but infants are by far my favorite. I love watching them learn and grow and helping them achieve milestones. I love messy sensory activities, so be prepared for a lot of cute, messy pictures of your little one!

I have a daughter and a son; My daughter is in the Moose class this school year (pre-k) and my son is a little Caterpillar as well! Being a mother has brought so much joy to my life and has helped improve my teaching skills, or rather being a teacher has improved my skills for motherhood I love traveling, photography, and making wonderful memories with my little family!

I know things are a little crazy this year due to COVID, but I will still try my hardest to form a wonderful parent/teacher relationship with you! I am so excited for this upcoming school year!

Wanda Mauldin

I have lived in Austin all my life. I have been married for 36 years and we have a 30-year-old son. I used to work at Abiding Love Lutheran Church on Sundays, then in 2005 I started working at Abiding Love Children's Center. It has been a wonderful 16 years; I love working here!

During my personal time, I am a volunteer docent at the Dr. Pound Historic Farmstead Museum in Dripping Springs, TX. I love spending my free time shopping with friends and sewing.

Lacy Duphorne

I am Lacy Duphorne! I'm currently a sophomore at Texas State University pursuing a bachelor's degree in early childhood education. I have worked at Abiding Love since January 2020, and I am very happy and grateful to call this place my home. I have had a passion for children and teaching since I was a child myself. I absolutely love kids and appreciate being a part of their lives at a very transformative time. I recognize how much growth and learning happens in the first few years of a child's life, and that is not something I take lightly. I am looking forward to getting to know your child and your family, and I thank you for giving me the opportunity to do so!

Amy Verlander

This will be my third year at Abiding Love, and I have loved it. I enjoy working with infants. My favorite scripture is Psalm 139:13-14 says, "For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know full well", and I see each child as a sacred and true treasure from God. I am a hardcore Aggie, and I love the culinary arts and family time.
